

Do You Pray Before You Take a Test?

Vadim Ternovskiy

Many students think about that if they pray to God to help them to pass their test, that they will definitely pass this test. I think about that there is nothing wrong in praying, but prayer won't help a student if the student didn't help to himself.

I believe in that God helps to people who help to themselves. So if I didn't help to myself by studying, God will not help me. To tell to you the truth, sometimes, even if I know that it won't to help me, I still pray to God to help me to do well. This usually happens only when I am not prepared and when I don't know the material.

Of course, however, I do not get a good grade.

Unfortunately, many students, including myself, pray to God before to take a test because prayer affords them their only chance that they will do well on the test.
